FREE GUIDE

The Attractive Loving Wife Blueprint

The 4-Stage Framework for Men Who Are Done Waiting and Ready to Pursue One Attractive Loving Wife With Integrity.

By Theophilus Akpom · opulence99.com

“He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the Lord.” Proverbs 18:22

Before We Dive In

I almost married a woman I wasn't really attracted to.

Not because she was a bad person. But because I believed false theology. I believed wanting a wife I was genuinely attracted to was a carnal desire. If I was truly a man of God, then I wouldn't go for that. I believed I had to focus only on character, since "beauty is fleeting" (Proverbs 31:30).

Boy was I wrong.

There's a difference between a sister in Christ and your wife. Many men raised in church conflate the two. I almost made a covenant with a woman who would have been a good friend but a deeply painful wife.

> "Good character alone might make a good buddy, but it takes more for a good wife. God designed attraction to be part of a healthy covenant. Marrying a woman you don't genuinely desire isn't holy, it's torture."

This blueprint exists to help men stuck between two bad options: church culture telling them attraction doesn't matter, and the world heavily emphasizing attraction over discerning character and compatibility. I believe both sides lead to a life full of misery or divorce.

Here's the framework you guys have been asking for. Something that would have made my life easier if I had it. Enjoy.

Let's have some fun and get to work. — Theophilus

A Lie That's Hurting Men in the Church

This verse has probably discouraged you from finding a wife:

> "Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised." Proverbs 31:30

This verse is the truth, but truth in the wrong context becomes wrong. Not the truth itself, but the application of it.

This verse is a warning against solely focusing on external beauty. It does not tell you to go for a woman who fears the Lord but isn't beautiful. You can have both.

Here are scriptures that support this:

Genesis 12:11

Clearly we can tell that Abraham, the father of faith, had a gorgeous wife. In fact, so beautiful that he felt the need to lie about his wife being his sister in Egypt, in fear of being murdered so they could take his wife.

Genesis 26:7

Now we're talking about Isaac, and he's in a similar situation. The verse clearly states that Rebekah was beautiful. Oh, I'm sorry, very beautiful. And guess what? He ran the same lying-about-his-wife-being-his-sister play.

Genesis 2:23-24

Does that sound like someone who woke up and saw his wife and was displeased, or someone who was fascinated by her? This is about becoming one flesh. Do you want to become one flesh with someone you don't even desire?

1 Samuel 25:3

We meet a wise and stunning woman named Abigail. She saved her rich, harsh, and foolish husband named Nabal from King David's wrath. Oh, and she was so wise that King David praised her for her wisdom, and even married her after her husband died.

I'm not encouraging you guys to lie about your future wife being your sister because she's that beautiful. There's no need to. I'm not saying to wait until a woman's husband dies to marry her either. What I'm saying is scripture is full of examples where God's anointed have beautiful wives, not just outwardly, but inwardly as well.

If you're a man after God's heart, I'd say you fit that category. After all, through faith we inherit the promises of Abraham's descendants. Romans 4:13

STAGE ONE
Foundation

01

Become a transformed man first.

As Paul states, “but be ye transformed.” You’ve got to renew your mind. Everything is foundational from your relationship with Christ. I’m not talking perfection but relationship. Walking after His perfect will for your life. Romans 12:2

What it is

Foundation is being a man after God’s heart. A man who seeks to do the will of the Father. Not only that, but with delight. In return he is dangerous and powerful and confident in who he is and whose he is.

We’re not talking about sissy living, that one-foot-in-one-foot-out double-mindedness or lukewarm lifestyle. That’s not living life more abundantly. That’s no power, or very little at most, with no exercising of your authority in Christ. The Bible makes it clear that a double-minded man is unstable in all his ways (James 1:8), and if you are lukewarm, God will spew you out (Revelation 3:15-17). Christ has come that we may have life and have it more abundantly, not a lackluster “Christian life” (John 10:9-11). There’s power to being a man fully submitted to Christ, and women feel that. 2 Timothy 1:7

Why it matters

A man who skips the foundation is as a man who builds his house on sand. Matthew 7:26-27 captures this perfectly. When you build on faulty ground, you aren’t building wise. What you’re building will always expose your foundation. So build it on rock, and you’re a man who isn’t swayed every direction. Your life can actually stand firm on the foundation that is Christ. A great example of this is the men who are exposed in scandals or do terrible things when the inevitable challenges of life come, and since they don’t have a firm foundation, they have a great fall and suffer a great loss.

What it’s not

Foundation is not about perfection. It’s not a reason to get your life in order before seeking Christ. It’s the starting point of the life you’re building, if you want to build a blessed life that stands the test of time.

> Your Move This Week
>
> Ask yourself what your foundation is and honestly examine it. Take it to prayer. If you don’t have a prayer life, start. If you aren’t spending time in the Bible, start. If you don’t have a brotherhood with Christ-centered men in your life, find some.

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.” Romans 12:2

STAGE TWO
Activation

02

After you pray, walk out in faith.

"Waiting on God" is not sitting still because you're afraid of the challenges ahead and want God to give you 100% certainty of every outcome before you move. That's cowardice, and it doesn't take any faith to be one. Waiting on God is actively moving towards God's promises for your life through the uncertainty and boldly facing the challenges ahead while you wait on God to give you the next step. Walking out what He's already given you through His word, and not sitting in fear.

What it is

Activation is where you put your faith to work. The Bible makes it clear that "faith without works is dead." James 2:17

Activation is where you have living faith, not the Christian zombie kind of faith. It looks like spending time in the word to renew your mind, then applying it to your day to day. Pursuing women from your God-given identity, not pedestalizing them because you don't know who you are, or never even saying hi because you're too afraid, when the righteous are bold as a lion. Proverbs 28:1-2

Why it matters

I've coached a lot of men 1 on 1 and have met many men in my online ministry on YouTube who have this in common: they're too passive. They just don't move. They want God to do all the work for them. God will not do your part, and you will not do His. Of course God performs miracles, but those miracles require work. Even salvation requires you believing in your heart and professing with your mouth. Romans 10:9

If the promises of God require faith and working out the faith, what makes you think your marriage is exempt?

What it's not

Activation is not sleeping around with multiple women. Activation is not living a sinful lifestyle. We're not talking about going the other way. We're not talking about doing it all on your own strength. We're talking about submitting to Christ and walking in faith while you're submitted.

Your Move This Week

Look at areas of your pursuit of an attractive loving wife where you've been passive. Look at areas where you've been using scripture to keep you against God's will versus utilizing scripture to live it out. Then decide. Make a decision to commit to being a man that starts living out what God has promised you. Plan, then execute, and let the Lord direct your steps. Proverbs 16:9

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord." Colossians 3:23

STAGE THREE
Discernment

03

Test fruit, not emotions.

Not every woman that says she is Christian fits the bill. There are wolves in sheep's clothing, and there are women who have a label but no fruit. You need discernment to see the difference.

What it is

Discernment is utilizing the Holy Spirit to help you properly judge a situation or decision with righteous judgement. 1 Corinthians 2:14, John 7:24

Why it matters

Discernment is crucial to not ruining your life. The enemy usually operates through deception. Look at the garden of Eden. Through lying and deception, he beguiled Eve. 2 Corinthians 11:3

Discernment helps you avoid the counterfeit wife. The woman that will lead you away from Christ and into death. It may sound dramatic, but I'm dead serious. I know men that walked away from Christ due to a woman. Satan will use different tools to make you fall. What makes you think he won't use women to do that, when he already has? The Bible makes it clear that there is a way that seems right but ends in death. Discernment helps you avoid it. Proverbs 14:12

What it's not

Discernment isn't judging with fake righteousness. It's not making up man-made rules that aren't grounded in scripture and obeying them as the word of God. Discernment isn't puffing yourself up as better than other people. That's building your ego and using scripture for your own agenda.

Your Move This Week

Do a deep study on discernment. Look it up and study it. Look for areas in your life where you've been judging from your own ego. Look for areas in your life where you've used scripture to keep yourself in bondage instead of to be made free. Once you've identified those areas, pray for God to help you judge with righteous judgement, and repent for the ways you've been misusing "discernment." Then start to discern. Looking at fruit is a brilliant way to discern, and it's founded in scripture.

"You will recognize them by their fruits." Matthew 7:16

STAGE FOUR
Covenant

04

Decide with wisdom, then live it out with joy.

Covenant is just the beginning, not the endgame. It's the start of a new life as a new creation. It's way more than the wedding. Similar to being saved, you're a new creation. You're one flesh. Don't believe me? It's found multiple times in the Bible. Genesis 2:24, Ephesians 5:31, Mark 10:8, Matthew 19:5

What it is

Covenant is a lifelong decision. It's way more than a contract or a light commitment. It's a commitment that has your life on the line. In Jewish culture, a covenant was made from a sacrifice and a vow: if I break this covenant, may the same thing done to this animal be done to me. Notice how vows are made when you get married? "Till death do us part." That's why divorce isn't a light thing. The action of an unjustified divorce causes a spiritual trespass.

Why it matters

If you know how serious marriage is, you'll take it more seriously. It's not just something you do on a whim and leave when things get hard because "you fell out of love." If you're one flesh, divorce is a tearing apart of one flesh, not just "going our separate ways."

What it's not

Covenant isn't a thing to take lightly. It's not like water and oil; it's a mixture that completely transforms into one new solution. Covenant is not something you run away from because it's difficult. It's not just a beautiful event. It's a lifelong journey that you decided to partake in with someone else, for the rest of your life.

Your Move This Week

Before moving towards a marriage, a covenant, ask yourself these questions. Am I serious about committing to this woman for the rest of my life? Even when things get ugly, even when it's hard, even when I feel hopeless? Am I genuinely attracted to this woman? Is she someone I'm compatible with? Is this a woman I can stay loyal to for the rest of my life? If the answer to any of those is no, I'd recommend not saying I do. You're called to a high standard. You're called to love your wife as Christ loved the church. Not like, as. Big difference.

"Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her." Ephesians 5:25

What's Next

You now have the four-stage framework for pursuing an attractive loving wife in a way that honors the Lord. A framework without action is just a framework, not transformation.

Need help putting it into action? We have some ways to help you, so you're not doing it alone.

Your free consultation

Thirty minutes, one-on-one with me, to see if the mentorship is the right fit. If you've booked it, bring this framework and your questions. If you haven't yet, it starts on the mentorship page.

opulence99.com/mentorship

The Opulence 99 Brotherhood

An app built just for you. A brotherhood of men on the same journey, with Christ as the foundation. This is not a place that you come and stay the same. For men who are serious about change and ready to apply themselves.

opulence99.com/brotherhood

The Attractive Loving Wife Blueprint Mentorship

A year-long private 1:1 coaching program for accomplished men who want something exclusive and are ready to apply everything I teach them, with Christ at the center. It starts with your free consultation.

opulence99.com/mentorship

"He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the Lord." Proverbs 18:22